BASE BALL

The Colorado Springs and Monument Clubs Play a Close Game of Base Ball.

The game of base ball yesterday afternoon on the North Weber street grounds between the Monument and Colorado Springs clubs was a close and exciting contest. Unlike the previous game when the score was 45 to 10 in favor of the Colorado Springs club, it was kept within moderate limits and the struggle was not decided until the last man was out in the ninth inning. The closeness of the score however was not due to the heavy batting efforts of either club, for neither of the pitchers was hit hard, and the fielding on both sides being of a very indifferent order.

McMahon, the Monument pitcher, though hit harder than Fitz, was more effective than the latter, having ten strike outs, and no balks on [illegible] He [illegible] from his brother behind the bat, and pitched a strong game throughout. The Colorado college boy seemed unable to gauge his delivery and their hits were of the scratch order and somewhat scattered. Had McMahon received better support in the field, the result of the game would have been very different.

Porter, who played first base for the visitors made several costly errors, all of which netted runs. He made a number of hits and catches however, as the record of his put outs shows. Outside of their battery work the fielding of the visitors was weak and abounded in errors. They were however quite strong at the bat and wielded the stick effectively, particularly in the [illegible] and some very heavy batting the score.

In base running they were particularly slow, and several chances for scoring runs was lost by carelessness in this matter.

The work of the home team did not come up to the expectations of their admirers. They were very weak at the bat, and some very costly errors were made at critical periods in the game. The playing of Sherman on third and Todd in center field was of a high order, the former distinguishing himself by some very difficult stops and catches. He accepted every chance and played his position for all it was worth. Fitzgerald pitched a strong game, though Fitzgerald rendered him valuable support. The latter batted for [illegible] base hits to his credit and made several [illegible] throws to bases. He caught a fairly good game, and made a number of hard catches. In batting the local team were weak as a whole. Their hits were scattered and there were but few of [illegible] base runners. In justice to the home team it may be stated that they were deprived of the services of some of their best players.

Two [illegible] the game well in hand until the eighth inning when they went to pieces and allowed the home team to score five runs, none of which were earned. Notwithstanding the fact that errors were numerous on both sides the game abounded in some brilliant plays, all of which were impartially received by the crowd of 300 present. The umpiring was simply execrable, though it must be said that neither side had any the best of it. Taken all together the game will compare favorably with some of those played by professional clubs, and well repaid a jaunt to the grounds.

[illegible] The visitors would more practice would play a good game of base ball, and they will make some of the best clubs in the state work hard to beat them. A return game will probably be played between these clubs soon, taking place probably at Manitou. The score of yesterday's game is herewith appended.

Modjeska in "Twelfth Night" at the opera house this evening.

Passenger Agent Nye, of the Midland went to Denver on business yesterday.

The street railway company have work laid on Nevada avenue as far as San Rafael street.

The Monument Base Ball club during their stay in the city were entertained at the Grand View hotel.

Hons. C. D. Ford and R. C. Ellis of Monument were among the spectators at the ball game yesterday.

Mr. Joseph McComb left last week for Germany where he expects to take a course in music.

The new Denver & Rio Grande passenger depot will probably be lighted by 25 Ingalls search-light lights.

The average time on the Midland between this city and Leadville, 104 miles, is about twenty miles an hour.

Colorado Springs can now boast of but few new clothing stores exclusive of merchant tailoring establishments.

Plans and specifications for the new Presbyterian church have been completed by several architects of Denver and Chicago.

A marriage license was issued yesterday afternoon to Mr. L. H. Kelly and Miss Amy Hu[illegible].

Mr. H. W. Hibbert, of the firm of Hallett & Baker of this city, is up from his ranch in the Grand valley for a few days.

The funeral of Mrs. Phebe Williamson, who died in this city yesterday, will take place to-morrow afternoon at Grace Episcopal church.

There will be a regular meeting of the W. S. Ja. Sons Hose company this evening at 7 o'clock. Every member is requested to be present.

Plans and specifications for a frame dwelling house to be erected on Cascade avenue by one of our prominent citizens.

Mr. J. A. Weir of this city and Dr. Dansdale of Glenwood Springs are erecting a double brick building to be in this city on one of the main streets.

The remains of Mrs. William Tooley of Memphis, Texas, who died in this city on Tuesday evening, were sent yesterday to her home by Early Bros.

Reserved seats for Milton Nobles's engagement at the opera house next Monday evening will be placed on sale at Bell's drug store to-morrow morning.

We publish to-morrow the official call for the republican county convention which will meet on October 2d. The primaries will be held on the 1st.

The family of the late George Gerrans desire us to publicly return their sincere and heartfelt thanks to their many friends for their kindly deeds and expressions of sympathy in their recent bereavement.

The funeral of the late George Gerrans took place yesterday afternoon from Grace Episcopal church. During the afternoon all of the retail markets in the city remained closed out of respect to the memory of the deceased.

There is quite a demand for sheep in the northern part of the state and several thousand could be kept in this county but few can be sold to parties from this section.

Mr. Tho. A. Rose, Grand Secretary of the Sovereign Grand Lodge I. O. O. F., and Mr. Alba[illegible] Jenckes, assistant grand secretary, are visiting Colorado Springs before continuing their journey to their home in Columbus, Ohio.

The Venetian View Reservoir and Ditch company of this county have filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state. The capital stock of the company is $[illegible] and the directors are Thos. G. Warwick, S. R. Wood and A. L. Stam.

Mr. [illegible] has leased the [illegible] of the county court property for a term of [illegible] years, and will put in a stock of [illegible] and [illegible] in connection with his [illegible] business. The place of business will be removed on [illegible].

On Wednesday evening the watermain on Hagerman's addition was completed and flooded the block. The break occurred on the place where the new main is being laid, and was promptly repaired by Superintendent Peed, who was immediately notified of the occurrence.

Mr. James McLean has disposed of his lease on the Monument hotel, and will shortly remove to this city where he will open a first class short order restaurant. Mr. McLean has many friends in Colorado Springs who will be glad to know of his contemplated return. We predict that he will meet with abundant success in his new business venture.

Captain William Saxton of Company A yesterday received a letter from Inspector and Paymaster General J. J. Quinn in which he requested him to send immediately all the bills due for horse hire in the late campaign. He also thanked him and the members of the company for the attitude they had assumed regarding the payment of the moneys due them by the state.

Mr. A. L. O. Schuder, a prominent business man of Kansas City, Missouri, has purchased the Hermann property on the Manitou road at its junction with the road through the Garden of the Gods. He has also bought the Gould property immediately adjoining. It is his intention to erect a handsome suburban residence on this property and locate here permanently with his family.

The one-story brick building now in course of erection by Mr. J. L. Marston on Pike's Peak avenue, near Hallett & Baker's, is rapidly nearing completion. The brick work of the building is being done in a very neat and fancy manner and when it is finished will present a fine specimen of neat workmanship. One of the rooms in the building will be occupied for office purposes by Dr. S. F. Hazelhurst.

Mr. E. P. Moon of Husted has furnished us with the following weather record for the week ending September 20th: Highest temperature 77°, on the 17th; lowest temperature 30°, on the 15th; weekly mean temperature 51.7°; prevailing direction of the wind north; clearest days, 17th and 20th; cloudiest days 18th and 19th.

The reports of the police court for the past three months have shown a remarkable falling off in the cases of drunkenness which have been tried in that court. While the decrease is partly attributable to the removal of the railroad grading outfits from this section, yet the officials think that the number of cheap hacks which run between Colorado City and this place have caused the rough and drinking element to make their city their headquarters. The amount of business done by these conveyances is really surprising, when their number is taken into consideration.

Several prominent business men have given orders with the electric light company to have large arc lights put in their business houses. There is also some talk of the D. & R. G. railroad putting three of the arc lights in front of their new passenger depot. The five street lights for the city now will be of 2000 candle power each, and will replace the present 1200 candle power lights on about the same circuit. The new lights will be of 4000 candle power each, and it is claimed that their illuminating effect will be equal to that of the present lights. The change will be made in a few days.
